

Took a while to get it online but it's a perfect xmas gift for everyone who hasn't download it yet. Santa Kia is coming up with a load full of drums. Halfstepping his way tru the garden of your neighbour and splattering their kids' snowman. HOHOHOHO. Fuck you m/

Kia Tasbihgou AKA Malicious first started fucking around with Garageband in 2008, as a bored 16 year old kid that couldn't get enough of DNB. He first started taking production seriously in the latter stages of the year, with tracks 'Cadaver' and 'Sterilise' being signed to the notorious Black Hoe. Since then, after a drought in 2009, he has brought in 2010 with signings to Section 8, Diffrent, Order in Kaos, Hell's Bassment, Evil Beats, Alimony and last but not least Infectech. Having worked with the likes of Skull, eRRe, AirJ, Peter Kurten, Dead Phantoms, Thorne and recently starting AGGRESSOR, a collaboration project with Centaspike, and receiving mentions from Zardonic, DJ Hidden and Lucio De Rimanez to name a few, Malicious is definitely becoming a name to watch. With this release, you can gain a true feel for his trippy, halfstep and uncompromisingly dark style.
